Only three years have elapsed since the discoverer (who spent a decae in studying, experimentalizing and perfecting it) first itroduced it to the public, and it is already recognized by the most eminent physicians in all parts of the country to be the most surprising and effective remedy for certain discases of which they have knowledge.

.....JULY 3, 1856. THURSDAY::

The Whig Conventions. The rumor, which no doubt has reached the ears of most of our readers, and occasionally found its way into the public prints, that the Whig Conventions that are to meet here on the 3d and 4th days of July were to be packed for Mr. Fillmore, is, it seems, about to turn out true.

In all the northern counties of the State, where delegations have been appointed, the whole thing has been managed by Joshua Bell, a Free-Soil Whig, and malignant hater of the Democratic party. His delegates will, of course, pursue any ccurse which will aid the cause of Black Repub-

In other counties, where the abolition sympathizers had not strength enough to carry out their schemes, Know-Nothings have flocked to the meetings of the "Old-Line Whigs" and voted down all propositions to appoint delegates to the

We find in two of yesterday morning's papers the names of the delegates from this city, an inspection of which will satisfy all who know any thing about them, that "Old-Line Whiggery in this city, means a compound of Know-Nothingism and Abolitionism. Here are the names: A. A. Gordon, L. L. Shreve, Bland Ballard

Wm. F. Pettit, W. B. Belknap, Thomas Anderson, A. O. Brannin, Benjamin J. Adams, Judge Pirtle. A. A. Gordon, the first on the list, is a ram pant emancipationist and has uniformly voted with the Know Nothings since the birth of that vicious faction, and has (we are informed) frequently declared that he never had and never would vote for a Democrat. L. L. Shreve (although probably not a sworn member of the order.) is aregular voter with him, and so bitter a hater of the Democratic party that he is silly enough to pretend to believe that Buchanan will be beaten by both Fremont and Fillmore.

Bland Ballard is an Abolitionist and has frequently expressed his preference for Seward over preference, but he would doubtless vote for Fill- life. more as a means of indirectly aiding the Black Republicans.

Belknap is one of the men who proscribed the Louisville Democrat for abusing the Know Nothings and exposing the atrocities they committed on the 6th of last August. Anderson is an avowed supporter of Know Nothingism, and Brannon of course is the same or he would not have been appointed. Benj. J. Adams has been one of the most active coadjutors and supporters of Know Nothingism, and if reports be true, has bled very profusely for Judge Pirtle has declared over his own signature, in a letter (published in all the papers of the city) that he has been a Know Nothing for twenty years, and intends to support Fillmore and Donelson, and was even silly enough to say that he believed their election necessary to the salvation of the Union.

A nice lot of delegates to an Old Line Whig

Democratic State Electors.

Hons, Elijah Hise and John C. Breckinridge by the 8th of January Convention. By the nomination of Mr. Breckinridge for the Vice Presidency, his position as Elector was vacated, and we understand that the Kentucky Delegation at Cincinnati unanimously recommended to the Central Committee the appointment of Col. John W. Stevenson, of Covington, to fill the vacancy. The Central Committee, however, have not yet made the appointment, and thus far the Democratic party of the State has not opened the canvass. True, a few of our Electors are in the field doing their duty, but they are only a few. The others are literally doing nothing.

Many Democrate have spoken to us on the subject, and have urged us to call upon the Committee and upon the Electors to be up and doing. The Central Committee should have no doubts as to their duty. The whole party in the State desires the nomination of Col. Stevenson, and he should be given his commission immediately, that he may commence the canvass.

Every Elector in the State should be at work. The Know Nothings are in the field in full array. If we would not lose the State in November, the canvass should be commenced in earnest. If any of our Electors cannot give the time, or have not the disposition to perform their duty, they should resign, and let other men take their

We have no holiday business before us. Kentucky is to be won for the Democratic nominees by a struggle-by an earnest and laborious strug gle and now is the time to commence that

FILLMORE MOVEMENTS IN OHIO .- The Know Nothing Executive Council of Ohio, at a late meeting, have resolved to hold a grand mass meeting of Mr. Fillmore's friends at Columbus, on Wednesday, the 11th day of September next. They passed also the following resolution, which shows some "grit:" Resolved, That the Executive Council do recommend to the members of the American party in Ohio to avoid all "fusion" of every description, no matter under what pretext it may be of-fered, with any other party or parties, in the ap-proaching congressional and county elections, but in all of said districts and counties to make purely American nominations, and faithfully and honestly support them, regardless of success or defeat.

The "Ten Cents a Day" charge. So triumphant and overwhelming has been the refutation, by the Democratic press of the courtry, of the vile calumny that Mr. Buchanan favored the reduction of the wages of laboring men to "ten cents a day," that we never expected to hear it again repeated by a respectable man .-But it seems that the the Hon. Garret Davis does not deem it unbecoming his character to utter the falsehood and pledge his personal honor to degradation his political character. It is a remarkable fact, and one which strikingly illustrates the dignity and urbanity of Mr. Buchanan, that during his long senatorial career, there are but two instances in which he was involved in personal altercations with any of his fellow members. Both of these instances were connected with the "ten cents a day" charge, which now forms the principle staple for men-dasious Know Nothing speeches. This charge, says the Union, touched Mr. Buchanan on a point on which he was peculiar sensitive. It implied that he underrated the imthe working man. This sentiment constituted one of the leading features in the very speech in favor of the sub-treasnry system from which the charge was falsely deduced. When Mr. Davis, of Massachusetts, therefore, so far misinterpreted or misrepresented Mr. Buchanan's position as to deduce from that speech the charge of hostility to the interests of laboring men, it is not surprising that Mr. Buchanan repelled the injury in the strongest language that he could command. The controversy became bitter and personal; but Mr. Davis was constrained to admit that the speech contained no such sentiment as had been charged upon Mr. Buchanan.

The other instance alluded to occurred in one of those piquant but pleasant rencontres between Mr. Clay and Mr. Buchanan which frequently enlivened the debates of the Senate and excited the admiration of their friends. Mr. Tyler had vetoed the fiscal bank in 1841, and the Democratic Senators did not restrain the expression of their gratification. Mr. Clay resorted to a mode of warfare in which he had few competitors-he drew a picture of a portion of the Democratic Senators visiting Mr. Tyler to congratulate him, and in the foreground he placed Mr. Buchanan as the organ and spokesman of the Democrats. It was done in inimitable style and in a vein of great pleasantry, but in the course of his remarks he alluded to the "ten-cents" charge. When he closed Mr. Buchanan said he had listened with pleasure to all he had said except his "allusion to the electioneeering slang of the late contest on the subject of low wages." "This remark." said Mr. Buchanan, was wholly unworthy of that Senator, and he intended to answer it as it deserved. Mr. Clay interposed, and, like a truly enerous and brave man, assured Mr. Buchanan that his remark 'had been uttered merely in a playful manner, and was not intended to wound the Senator's feelings in the least." Mr. Buchanan accepted the explanation, and said "he was glad they were friends again." We give these incidents as well to illustrate the character of Mr. Buchanan for gentlemanly and courteous bearing as to show that he was prompt and decided in repelling unjust aggressions. They show, moreover, how utterly baseless was the charge out of which the collisions grew, and illustrate the relations of cordial friendship which any candidate who approved the repeal of the existed between Mr. Clay and Mr. Buchanan-s Missouri restriction. Fremont, we suppose, is his friendship which was uninterrupted during Clay's

The dismissal of Mr Crampton had an unfavorable effect on Amrican Stocks in London and M. S. sixes were selling at par. The people rather have his arm burnt off than vote with the of England-are evidently opposed to a war with this country, but some of the London papers, particularly the Post publish some very bitter articles in reference to the matter. It seems quite probable from the general tenor of the ad vices, that the English Government will not send that fleet to the American coast.

Mr. Davis' Speech.

One of the most disgusting, as well as dishonest features of the Know Nothing meeting on Tuesday night, was the appearance in the procession of some forty or fifty foreigners who are members of a bastard Know Nothing Society, called the "Western Lights." They were invited to the

Mass Meeting at the Court House To-Night. Our German friends are most politely invited to attend he Mass Meeting to-night at eight o'clock. By order of the American Executive Commit Signed, O. H. STRATTON,

They attended, and were placed in the odious position of listening to and approving the scornful denunciation of foreigners by Mr. Davis, and were appointed Electors on the part of the State | the sneers and curses of the "intensely Americans" around them. The speciacle, we repeat was disgusting. There is considerable stir in Covington, in elation to the Judgeship of the Circuit Court .-The candidates are Sam'l Moore of Kenton, Dem.; and Mr Trimble of Harrison, k. n.

There is one house in Newport that was erected sixty-nine years ago, another sixty-one. These ancient relics are still well preserved.

Can You Carry New York! We put this question to our neighbor of the North American. Can the electoral vote of the Empire State be secured by any possibility for Col. Fremont? Was the Democratic party of that great State ever known to suffer a defeat when firmly united, as they are at present?
It is idle to talk about the State of New York giving a Black Republican electoral vote with Mr. Fillmore in the field. Even if Mr. F. should be compelled to withdraw, there would be no hope for Col. Fremont. The State of New York will surely give her electoral vote for James Buhanan, as that the sun will rise on the morning of the 4th of next November.

* * * The North American. after acknowledging that, in New York State, the divisionr between the Americans and the R publicans is still broad and deep, says:

Moreover, it is asserted that a considerable section of the old Soft party will desert Buchanan, and go over for Frenont. Some of them bolted before the nomination was

To be sure the editor admits that this is mere 'asserted," but does he believe the assertion has the slightest possible foundation in fact? He cannot but know, if he has paid the least attention to political matters in that Stete, that the two divisions of the Democratic party, have cor-dially united in favor of Mr. Buchanan for the Presidency. Even if they shall have two tickets for State officers, of which there is some probability, there will be but one Democratic Electoral Ticket, which will be zealously supported by every member of the party, no matter to which di-vision of it he may have heretofore belonged. vision of it he may have heretofore belenged.—
These are facts which we have had best opportunity in the world of knowing to be such, from a late residence in that State. We say to our neighbor, in all kindness, that he is laboring under a prodigious error, if he supposes for one moment that this "it is asserted" has the least foundation whatever; and we beg leave to add that no Soft in New York bolted before the nomination was made at Cincinnati, who was not an nation was made at Cincinnati, who was not an open Abolitionist and a pestilential mischief-maker, and who did us, as a party, far more harm

If any other evidence is wanting to establish The Staunton (Va.) Vindicator states that John B. Spiece, a prominent Whig lawyer in Albemarle county, in that State, is out for Buchanan.

If any other evidence is wanting to estatons our position than the noble stand which has been taken by the whole Democratic press in the State of New York, it may be found in the patriotic letters of the distinguished gentlemen that we published yesterday morning. We allude to the letters of the Hon. John A. Dix, ex-United States Senator from that State, ex-Lieutenant Governor Church, and Hon. R. W. Peckham, a Governor Church, and Hon. R. W. Peckham, a former Representative in Congress. These genthemen undoubtedly speak the true sentiments of the Soft portion of the Democratic party of that the Case of Forrest vs Forrest. It has been stated that Mrs. Forrest Sinclair, previous to her departure from California for Australia, intimated, that should a new trial be granted, she should not defend it.

We knew quite well before the meeting of the Convention at Cincinnati, that if Mr. Buchanan was nominated, both branches of the Democratic party of that if Mr. Buchanan was nominated, both branches of the Democratic party of the Soft portion of the Democratic party of the sentiments of the Soft portion of the Democratic party of the Soft portion of the Democratic party of the Soft portion of the Democratic party of the sentiments of the Soft portion of the Democratic party of the sentiments of the Soft portion of the Democratic party of conscience—and to secure the peace of the Union, by rendering equal justice to every part. Signs of the Times. The last Logan County (0.) Gazette, formerly Old Line Whig, says: There are sixty Old Line Whigs in Lake town ship, and five hundred in the county, who repudiate Fremont. In another article it remarks:

OLD WHIGS FOR BUCHANAN!-From every sec of old Whigs-the friends of Harrison, of Clay of Taylor—who openly and firmly repudiate the nomination of Fremont. The idea of electing the truth of it. Probably the honorable gentle-President of the United States the nominee of a man is right in supposing that no falsehood he Convention in which only half the States were could utter would reduce to any lower depth of represented — a Convention whose members boasted of their sectionalism—is so utterly re-pulsive to the mind of every patriot—so contrary to every principle of Whigism, that it is rejected with disdain. Hence we hear of its repudiation in every township in the country.

The Pittsburg Union of the 28th ult., says that the Democratic ratification meetings in Pennsylvania have been unusually large and enthusiastic, and that at nearly every meeting, among the speakers, are found distinguished Old-Line Whigs; men who, while the old national Whig party lasted, battled the Democracy manfully and gallantly. But they see the peril to the country of a sectional party whose success would portance and character of the laboring men of be inevitable ruin, and they resolve to stand by the country. Every act of his life had shown the Constitution and the Union and join the onthat he was the earnest and constant friend of ly party that is national—the only party that can promise safety and domestic peace. These speakers at the different meetings all assure us that the great body of the Old-Line Whigs will be cordially with us in November next.

The Canfield (O.) Sentinel, published in Mahoning county, has the following paragraph, showing how public opinion is setting in there: Coming Back .- Many Democrats who have een gulled, for two years past, into voting the Fusion ticket, since the nomination of Buchanar and Breckinridge, announce their determination to come back into the old line, and devote their energies once more for the success of Democratic

In another article it states that "a number of old line Whigs in Mahoning county have already announced their intention to support the Democratic nominees for the Presidency. They are unwilling to bind themselves to the car of mongrel Abolitionism; nor do they admit the claims of Fremont to their suffrages, or admire his experience as a statesman. Sensible men seldom admire ambitious renegades."

The Boston Courier, the ablest old line Whig paper in New England, and which, during his ifetime, was the confidential home organ of Daniel Webster, although it coes not support Mr. Buchanan, ridicules the idea that Colone Benton's son-in-law can be elected. It says:

The melo-dramatic spectacle, the Republican Convention, is now closed. The curtain has dropped; the lights are put out; the actors have made their bow to the audience, after strutting and fretting their hour upon the stage, and the performance, such as it is, is now open to the criticism of the country. We say frankly that we regard the convention simply as a spectacle. a pageant, a masque, contrived-and well con trived, too—for the entertainment of the people but nothing more. Colonel Fremont, their can didate, may possibly carry six States, but beyond this he will not go. Had the body which met some time ago—in Washington, was it?—and called itself the Guano Convention, nominated a candidate for the Presidency, he would have about as much chance for success as the candidate of the Republican party.

Even the National Era, the central organ of the Black Republicans in Washington City, despairs of success. After saying that Buchanan will carry the entire South, the Black Republican will be southed as the south of the south will be successed as the south of Era candidly admits:

As for carrying California for the Republican candidate, the supposition is wild. That State is slavery ridden. Both the Whig and Democrattheir subserviency to slavery. We might as well hope for Missouri. In Pennsylvania, as against Fremont. Buchanan would in all probability command the entire Democratic vote, and a large portion of the old conservative Whig vote. Now, with this one hundred and twenty votes, he uld need only Pennsylvania and New Jersey, or Pennsylvania and California. The last two would raise his vote to one hundred and fifty, one more than enough to elect.

Mr. John C. Breckinridge's Letter of June 13, 1856.

SIR :- The National Convention of the cratic party which recently assembled in Cincinnati, unanimously nominated you as a candidate for the office of Vice President of the United

You have already informally accepted the nomination, but we deem it appropriate, under instructions of the Convention, to communicate the information officially in their name. We alsolicit your attention to the resolutions adopted by that assembly as expressive of the views and policy of the Democratic party, in relation meeting by the following notice, published in to the important public questions involved in the approaching Presidential election.

The Convention have associated your name with that of an eminent and experienced statesman, under the conviction that, although your public career has been brief, yet that it has comnded the confidence not only of your party, but the country, and that your talents and patriotism will essentially aid in illustrating the principles and in firmly establishing the wise and renerous policy of the Democratic party.

We tender to you personally our since con-gratulations upon this distinguished proof of the public esteem, and remain with assurances of Your fellow-citizens,

JOHN E. WARD, W. A. RICHARDSON. HARRY HIBBARD, W.B. LAWRENCE, A. G. BROWN, JNO. L. MANNING, JOHN FORSYTH. J. RANDOLPH TUCKER,

HORATIO SEYMOUR, W. PRESTON,

Hon. JNO. C. BRECKINRIDGE. LEXINGTON, KY., June 28, 1856.

The platform adopted by the Convention has my cordial approval. I regard it as the only basis on which the Union can be preserved in its original spirit. Adopted as it was by the States, ts hows that amidst the distractions of the times there remains one united and powerful organization, whose common principles extend over every foot of Territory covered by the federal constitution. After the recent repeated and deplorable failures of other parties to present to the country a national organization, we may justly congratulate the States upon the unanimity which marked the proceedings of the Democratic Convention—and the patriot may point to the fact as a pledge of constitutional Union, that the delegates from Maine and Taxon, force Searth. egates from Maine and Texas—from South Caro-lina and California, were as thoroughly united upon every question of principle, as those from the neighboring Southern States of Tennessee and Kentucky, or those from the neighboring Northern States of Wisconsin and Michigan.

This community of sentiment, this feeling of brotherhood, gives hope of perpetual Union. It has been the happy fortune of the Democratic party by address the sentiment. ty, by adhering to the constitution, which was made to protect us all, to avoid the geographical and sectional issues against which Washington solemnly warned his countrymen; and we have solemny warned his countrymen; and we have every reason to believe, that it is yet equal to the high duty which now devolves on it of preserving the constitution and maintaining the rights of every portion of the confederacy. If the unsound elements which troubled it for a time, have sought congenial associations elesewhere; the loss has been more than supplied by accessions from the flower of the old. ions from the flower of the old whig party—and thus reinforced, it will be the destiny of the Democracy, under the lead of their distinguished cheif, to maintain the high position of our countries.

Prentice, in hatching, and the Commercial in adopting the false and absurd story about the editor of this paper, are guilty of that disregard of probability, which even professional and habitual liars ought to keep in view. A man of the professional and habitual liars ought to keep in view. A man of greater amount of calumny and traduction, and currility, leveled at the very highest and purest of the land, than ever flowed from any other mind and heart. Unfortunately for him, but perhaps fortunately for the world, as an example of prostituted talents, the evidence of his political and offences are of record. Litera manet! The communication of Colonel Hodge, in another column, shows that the man, who is now the defamer and culminator of a whole body of Christians—who has stirred up in a peaceful community that most deadly and violent of all human passione, religious bigotry and hate—whose Journal is filled with diatribes against Roman Catholics as opposed to freedom, to truth, to morality and to republicanism—this man, who thus labors and caluminates to advance a mere restricted by the state of partisan or selfish end was, in 1829 as editor a highly respectable paper in New England, called the Hartford Weekly Review, an earnest defender of the Catholics.

Several numbers of that paper are now before us. The name of George D. Prentice appears at the head of the first column as the editor—the sole editor. In the number of the Review of August 24, 1829, Prentice, in one of his leaders mn and a half, defends the Catholics with a zeal and ardor fully as great, and a thousand times more honest, than that with which he now pursues them. Colonel Hodge has given these quotations at large, in his communication in another column. Prentice there declares he has no sympathy with the prejudices against the Catholics, among whom there are such illustri-ous names as Fenelon, Lafayettee and Charles Carroll. He pays them and other Catholics the highest compliments; defends them with great earnestness against the charge of religious intolerance: asserts that in England, Scotland and Ireland they have been uniformily champions of

Through other articles of the Review there

Such was the position of George D. Prentice in 1829, as the editor of the Hartford, Weekly Review. Compare it with the present position of the Louisville Journal, and we have one of the most melancholy instances ever presented of the prostitution of intellect and conscience to the uses of faction. The opinions which the Journal now utters are precisely those which the Review denounced and refuted. They are opinions, too, of that character which are never honestly changed—opinions founded upon historical facts -which no subsequent events have afforded the slightest pretext for changing or modifying. But this is not the only subject upon which Prentice stands convicted by Col. Hodge of an unparalleled inconsistency. He now claims to be a Southern Pro-slavery organ, and sits in judgment upon the integrity and fidelity of Southern born vindictive denunciations of the New Englanders. would imagine that Prentice was born in South Carolina, was nursed by a negro, and brought up on a plantation. They would certainly never

"THE PURCHASE OF TEXAS MUST BE OPPOSED. EVERY MAN WHO DOES NOT WISH TO SEE THE POWER OF THE NORTHERN AND WESTERN STATES DEPARTFOREVER; EVERY MAN WHO DOES NOT WISH TO SEE A DOZEN NEW SLAVE STATES ADDED TO THE UNION, AND TO "HEAR THE CRIES OF ADDITIONAL MILLIONS OF WRETCHED NEGROES GOING UP TO MEET THE LORD IN IN THE AIR AND IMPRECATE VENGEANCE UPON OUR LAND, WILL OPPOSE THE PURCHASE OF TEXAS WITH A DEEP AND IRRESISTABLE DETERMIXATION."

This is language quite as strong as any that Gerrit Smith or Fred. Douglass would employ. These sentiments of Prentice, in 1829, have, it is well known, never been changed. Indeed, their existence has been frequently manifested during his management of a Southern journal.

They were expressed in his life of Clay and have leaked out in his unguarded editorals, and yet he assumes to be the defender of the South and of slavery! So much for the expose of Colonel Hodge, in o-day's Enquirer, which we recommend as remarkably interesting reading. There is another similar incident-indeed, there are many others -but this is the one for which alone we have now room, which will close this record of the most brilliantly inconsistent and contradictory man that ever dared to lead public sentiment and to pass judgment upon his fellow men.

Prentice has, quite recently, sought to arrest the swelling tide of Buchananism, which is grad-ually swallowing up the old Whig party in the State, by reviving the story which connected Mr. Buchanan's name with the bribery and corruption charge against Mr. Clay. The attempt to associate Mr. Buchanan with aught that is dishonorable or unmanly, is one from which less audacious men than Prentice would shrink. But Prentice does not stop at any misrepresenta-tion and slander to injure a political opponent. It is fortunate that his record is so voluminous a one that it is quite easy to extract the sting from his malicious imputations, by producing some evidence that at previous periods of his life, when not tempted from truth and honesty, he has con-fessed and acknowledged the falsehood and baseness which he now justifies and endorses. In 1831 Prentice wrote and published the Biography of Mr. Clay.

We have now the work before us. After re ferring to the Kremer story and tracing it to its ferring to the Kremer story and tracing it to its explosion, after justifying Mr. Clay's vote for Mr. Adams for the Presidency, Prentice thus refers to the charge of "bargain" which it had been supposed was put to rest by the investigation in the House of Representatives:

Lexington, Ky., June 28, 1856.

Gentlemen:—I have received your letter of thr 13th inst., giving me official information of my nomination by the Democratic National Convention, for the office of Vice President of the United States. I feel profoundly grateful to the Democracy for this distinction, so far above my merits and expectations, and accept the nomination, with the pledge that if it should result in imposing on me any public duties, I shall exert whatever power I possess to discharge them with fidelity.

The Convention wisely selected for the first place in the Government, an eminent statesman whose character and public services furnish a guarantee that his administration will command confidence at home and respect abroad.

The platform adopted by the Convention has

This is from Prentice's Biography of Henry Clay, page 236, 3. It was written when he had no partisan malice against Mr. Buchanan; and he then told the trath. It is only thus, or by accident that Prentice can act justly and honestly by a political opponent. political opponent.

We do not, however, intend to proceed further

It is a nuisance to newspaper readers, who care little about the past opinions or acts of editors, or their private affairs. Neither to attack nor to defend could we be lightly provoked to engage in such a warfare. What we have said of Prentice has been in reference to his political career.
What we may say of him depends upon the direction which he may give to the discussion.

A SEVERE REBUKE. - During the recent sess at Chicago af the Western Unitarian Conferences resolutions were introduced relating to Kansas, and to the assault upon Sumner; which, after considerable debate, were laid quietly upon the table. "This is a severe rebuke to the Rev. Mr. Mumford, Unitarian clergyman of this city, to whose political sermon, delivered two or three weeks ago, we have had occasion to refer. We trust the lesson administered will be a useful one, and that he will profit by it.

The Model Political Vaulter and A new edition of the People's Pamphlet, giving the false and aband story about the tual liars ought to keep in view. A man of some reputation for truth, who expected thus to impose upon the credulity of his readers, ought to pretend, at least, that he has some stronger evidence than the idle and jocular statement or malicious invention of one man, of what he heard from another respecting a third. We should regard it a waste of time and space to enter upon as serious defence against such a story.

It would be fortunate for Prentice if the innumerable charges of political tergiversation, summersetting, and other acts far worse, (into which we have no desire now to enter, and will only do so when adequately provoked.) would be resolved into mere heresay and idle scandal. St. Louis, where he intends permanently to establish himself.

There is probably no class of diseases which are so wide apread in their nature and so terrible in their results as the diseases of the throat and lungs. It, therefore, becomes a matter of earnest solicitude to the profession to know: I there be any means whereby those diseases can be controlled and ameliorated.

Dr. R. Hunter and myself have made these diseases our own peculiar study for several years, and we have found that the only means whereby these diseases can be reached is by direct local application, or the prescribing of medicines which are breathed into the lungs in the form of vapor, and are consequently brought in contact with the whole internal surface of the lungs for success of our treatment his fully sustained the theory.

PHILADELPAIA, July 2.

The extensive pier at Reid street wharf caved in last night while occupied by about 75 persons mostly women and children enjoying the breeze from Delaware. Spear's wharf fell over crushing down the bridge over the sluice. Escape was difficult as connection with the main land was cut off. Large numbers were saved by boats from the receiving ship Union. Twelve or fifteen women and children perished. Very few bodies have been recovered.

The American convention at Springfield ratified the nomination of Fremont last evening by nearly 100 majority. A party of about 100 bolted from the convention and organized and ratified the nomination of Fillmore.

THIRTY-FOURTH CONGRESS-FOURTH SEM SION. WASHINGTON, July 2d, P

SENATE.—The Chair laid before the Senate a communication from the Secretary of State, transmitting the original journal of the proceedings of the Board of American Commissioners at Paris to liquidate and audit the claims of American citizens against the French Government, being for debts due them, and for the satisfaction of which, provision was made by the Convention between the United States and France, April 30,

Mr. Clayton said the report was made in answer to a resolution submitted by him some time ago. He desired to call attention to the document, because it completely refuted the ground upon which the President based his veto of the French Spo into bill. That veto rested on the assumed basis that the claims for spoliations were all examined and allowed under the treaty of 1803, but this document discloses the fact that so far from this, they were excluded for the reason that the Commissioners had nothing to do-with them. He alluded to the fact, that many with them. He alluded to the fact, that many years since, he examined the subject when it was before the Senate, being a member of the Select Committee of which Dan.' Webster was chairman. Mr. Webster took no part in the matter. Mr. Clayton being second on the committee, investigated the subject and reported the bill, which, contrary to the expectations of many which, contrary to the expectations of many friends, passed both Houses by a decided major ity, but unfortunately encountered the veto of resident Polk. Afterwards another bill similar to that passed Congress, but was vetoed by Pres. Pierce, but the latter veto was not based upon the same reason as the former, and any Se who would take pains to examine the document now before the Senate, would see that the who foundation of President Pierce's veto was error; in fact, he added, that his sympathies were strongly in favor of these claimants, and he noped some measure would be done for them.
House.—Mr. Campbell, of Ohio, asked leave to offer a resolution changing the daily hour of meeting from 12 to 11 o'clock. Mr. Jones, of Tenn., objected unless the time or the adjournment of Congress should be first Mr. Giddings: No bargains.

Mr. Houston moved to take up the Senator's diournment resolution Mr. Matteson and others objected. The reading of the report of the Kansas stigating committee was then resumed. The bill granting the right of way to the St. Louis and Iron Mountain Railroad through the arsenal magazines and Jefferson barrcks tracks The Kansas bill was taken up.

Mr. Wade said he stood up to advocate no nev doctrine, but the great principle of equal rights to all men, black and white. That was the doctrine of the fathers of this republic. In alluding to the passage of the compromise measures of 1852, which were called finality, he remarked that the democratic party had put the present administration into power upon the platform that they would resise the agitation of slavery.

He did not know how they intended to resist, whether with blood on the platform that they would resise the agitation of slavery. whether with bludgeons or otherwise. However, they had no right to restst the agitation of any subject. He stood here to resist all attempts to infringe on the rights of free speech, whatever might be the consequence. He opposed the bill under consideration, and criticised the political course of his colleague, which was completed.

Mr. Campbell, of Ohio, moved the further reading of the description. mr. Campben, or Onto, moved the lurther reading of the documents be dispersed with.

Messrs. Florence, Houston, Craige, A. K. Marshall, Quitman, and Bowie, at different times severally insisted on the reading of the docu-

The speakers decided it was the right of any member to have read the documents which were to be referred or printed.

Mr. Cobb, of Georgia, appealed to his friends not to insist upon that, as several days would hus be consumed and no good purpose accomplished. His appeal was successful.

On motion of Mr. Washburn, of Maine, the report was referred to the Committee on Elections and ordered to be printed. Leave was given the minority to report at any time within ten days and take additional testiony which, when submitted, shall be referred to the Committee on Elections and printed. The understanding is that all the papers, in-cluding the report of the minority shall be printed as one document.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says: "By legislation and b tive, the Kansas difficulties will be so the Exe soon settled that they will cease to form the main issue at the Presidential election in November."

UHHAN'S SAFES.

C. Urban, Bag.: Dear Sir—we take pleasure in expressing our entiresatisfaction in the utility of your Salamander Safes, of which we had two in use at our kiquor and Rectifying establishment, on Sycamore street, at the late severe conflagration. Surrounded by the most combastible material, and remaining for nearly two days in the burning ruins, our surprise was beyond description in finding, after opening said Safes everything in good order. In tendering to you our sinceregratification, we do not hesitate to recommend your Safes to those in want of such an article, as we knowfrom experience that they truly are what they represent to be, "fire proof."

We remain very truly yours,

Cincinnati, Oct., 1853.

I would calithe attention of my friends and the publicin general to the above letter, handed to me by Messrs. W. B. & Co., extensive liquor merchants.—
It is well known by the Cincinnatipublic that several of my Safes, of different sizes, have stood, of late, very severe tests. Among others, I would refor to heafre at Mr. Scovill's druggist; that of Messrs. Davie & Oo., iron merchants and founders; that of Mrs. Shillito, soap and candle factor; that of Messrs. Gireaud & carran, liquor and wine merchants. The Safesall came outvictorious, although surrounded by the most combustable material.

Having acquired all the late improvements, I dare say that my Safes are inferior to none made this side the monntains. Asto the outer appearance, I combine neatness with durability. Thankful for past favors, a continuation of patronagets kindly solicited, m?

Liver Complaint,
Oppression after enting,
Palpitation of the Heart,
Pain in the pit of the stomach, or towards the right side,
Sallowness of complexion,
Depression of spirits and irritability of temper, &c.
If a case of dyspepsia should be neglected, most serious effects may ensue, for it lays the foundation for, is the incipient cause of, and very frequently terminates in consumption I would impress upon the misd that to trifie with this disease, may be to sport with that reason which constitutes man super-eminent among animal beings, or to embitter existence by adding a consciousness of folly to the penalty of pain.
This medicine is prepared entirely from vegetable substances; the most delicate stomach can bear it conven ieatly, and it is given with perfect afety, in minute doses to the most tender infants, its properties being of a strengthening and invigorating nature. It is neatly put up in bottles, with ample directions for use.
The following testimonials from some well known and respectable citizens of Philadelphia, are fully corroborative of the tried efficacy of the Anti Dyspeptic Elixir.

Attetsation. We, having used William's Anti-Dyspectic Elixir with the most perfect satisfaction and success, take great plea sure in recommending it to all persons suffering with Dys-pepsia, as we are fully convinced of its most estimable qualities in restoring the digestive powers, removing a pain and uneasiness, and imparting a healthy tone to the

Williams's Anu-Dyspeptic Editary

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1853.

Doctor James Williams:—For several years past, I have been liable to attacks of Dyspepsia; but never have I been more distressingly afflicted with its symptoms, than within the last few weeks. Indigestion, nervous irritability, despondency, a sense of weight in the stomach, and severe pains in the left side, rendering me, for the time being, truly wretched. Forthantely, I was recommended by a friend to try your Elixir. I did so, and in less than two weeks, indigestion ceased; pain and nervous depression left me, and appetite, with mental and bodily health, were fully restored. To me the cure seemed almost mi raculous, and my object in writing to you us—a hope that ofher persons suffering the miseries of Dyspepsia will avail themselves of your efficient remedy.
